

pink peppermint TRAVELS

SAN DIEGO-DOWNTOWN

EXPLORE :

Just up the hill from Downtown is Balboa Park, home to museums, music and incredible architecture. Enjoy the day wandering and exploring all this park has to offer. Don't miss the World Famous San Diego Zoo, located in the park as well. It's world famous for a reason and you can easily spend an entire day there. Looking for nightlife? The Gaslamp District won't disappoint. Relatively quiet during the day, the clubs and restaurants come alive at night.

EAT :

Eating in San Diego...oh where to begin! There are so many great restaurants you'll have to visit more than once. Kick off your day with breakfast at Richard Walker's Pancake House. There's always a wait so be prepared. Another must do- grab a bite along the harbor at the Fish Market. You can get their rich and delicious clam chowder and fresh baked sourdough bread to go. Park yourself outside and watch the boats go by in the harbor while you eat.

STAY :

Don't be afraid to stay right downtown. The Gaslamp area offers ton of great options and is a safe, walkable location. Everything from fun boutique hotels to big chains you can find it all. A few of my favorites:
The Omni Hotel, adjacent to Petco Park
The Hilton San Diego Bayfront
The US Grant for total luxury
The Andaz for a boutique hotel experience

